From the Counseling Office:

Students be sure you check Jupiter grades for the current status of your academic grades. There are only less than two weeks remaining until the end of the semester and you need to pass ALL core classes to be on track for promotion. Our counselors have been calling out all 8th graders who are in jeopardy of NOT meeting promotion requirements. Counselors are also checking in with 7th graders who are failing classes. The last two weeks of this semester are crucial in completing all late assignments. Be sure to have all missing/late assignments completed before teachers set their deadlines. Parents, login to Jupiter grades and check your student's progress and have them complete their work. If you have any questions, please call your student's counselor.

Looking Ahead...

Please make sure that your iPads are updated for EOC Exams. Make sure you bring your iPads fully charged to school every day.
