Special Announcement

Dear BVM Parents and Students,
We are coming down to the end of the 2018-2019 academic year. Progress report cards went out Friday, April 26. Take a moment to discuss grades with your student and make a plan to finish strong this semester. For your planning purposes we have 2 more Saturday Schools to use to clear attendance and submit late work. The last day of AEC will be May 15. Please plan accordingly to use all available resources to support your student in finishing strong. After the deadlines, you as a parent, will have to reach out to teachers individually and make arrangements.
